Rowers earn medals at Columbus regatta

Wednesday, November 8, 2006

North Allegheny rowers earned eight medals at the Speakmon Memorial Regatta in Columbus, Ohio.

The Tiger rowers battled 55 teams from across the mid-west, and claimed a slate of four gold, two silver and two bronze medals.

The Tigers stood out early with a bronze medal in the Women's Singles and followed that with a gold and silver in the Women's Quads.

The Tiger men weren't far behind, taking gold in both the Men's Lightweight Singles and Men's Open Singles.

The Tiger ladies came back with a bronze in the Women's Open Doubles before the men finished out the day with both the gold and silver in the Men's Open Quads.

The team's new recruits also made a good showing in their first appearance in competition with a seventh place finish out of 28 boats for the Men's High School Novice Four; an eighth place for the Women's High School Novice 4+; a ninth place for the Men's High School Novice Eight' and a 14th place for the Women's High School Novice Eight.

Medal winners were Erin Dauson, Cherith Elliott, Logan Ellis, Stacey End, Bill Francis, Amanda Hirsch, Kaitlyn Hilderbrand, Victoria Horn, Jenny Hudson, Kathleen Janosco, Jessica Kelly, Olivia Klipa, Steve Marcus, Alan Meininghaus, Ryan Mohan, Mark Nolfi, Briana Pittman, Adam Reckless and Jeremy Tischuk.
